Introduction

Where Opportunity Meets Talent

Research has proven that job-related talents are directly related to job satisfaction and personal performance. People are well positioned to achieve success when they are engaged in work suited to their inherent skills, behavioural style and unique values. Your TTI Talent Insights Talent Report can be compared with specific job requirements outlined in TTI Talent Insights Job Reports. When the talent required by the job is clearly defined and in turn matched to the individual, everyone wins!

The following is a highly-personalised portrait of your talent in two main sections:

Driving Forces Clusters (12 Areas)

This section identifies what drives you. In order to be successful and energised on the job, it is important that your driving forces are in alignment with the rewards of your role.

Behavioural Hierarchy (12 Areas)

This section ranks the traits that most closely describe your natural behaviour. When your job requires the use of your top behavioural traits, your potential for success increases, as do your levels of personal and professional satisfaction.

Driving Forces Feedback

This section expands on your Primary Driving Forces Cluster. You will feel energised and successful at work when your job supports and satisfies these driving forces.

Behavioural Feedback

This section gives you insight into your top four behavioural traits to further identify your unique strengths.

Primary Driving Forces Cluster

Your top driving forces create a cluster of drivers that move you to action. If you focus on the cluster rather than a single driver you can create combinations of factors that are very specific to you. The closer the scores are to each other the more you can pull from each driver. Think about the driver that you can relate to most and then see how your other primary drivers can support or complement to create your unique driving force.

1. Resourceful - People who are driven by practical results, maximising both efficiency and returns for their investments of time, talent, energy and resources.

2. Intentional - People who are driven to assist others for a specific purpose, not just for the sake of being helpful or supportive.

3. Receptive - People who are driven by new ideas, methods and opportunities that fall outside a defined system for living.

4. Commanding - People who are driven by status, recognition and control over personal freedom.

Situational Driving Forces Cluster

Your middle driving forces create a cluster of drivers that come in to play on a situational basis. While not as significant as your primary drivers, they can influence your actions in certain scenarios.

5. Intellectual - People who are driven by opportunities to learn, acquire knowledge and the discovery of truth.

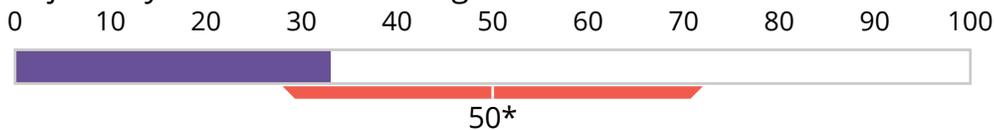

39

6. Harmonious - People who are driven by the experience, subjective viewpoints and balance in their surroundings.

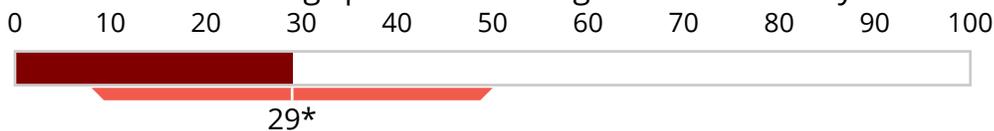

35

7. Objective - People who are driven by the functionality and objectivity of their surroundings.

33

8. Instinctive - People who are driven by utilising past experiences, intuition and seeking specific knowledge when necessary.

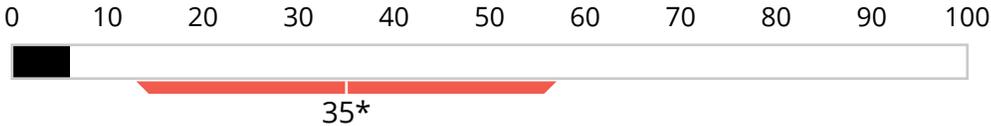

29

Indifferent Driving Forces Cluster

You may feel indifferent toward some or all of the drivers in this cluster. However, the remaining factors may cause an adverse reaction when interacting with people who have one or more of these as a primary driving force.

9. Collaborative - People who are driven by being in a supporting role and contributing with little need for individual recognition.

10. Altruistic - People who are driven to assist others for the satisfaction of being helpful or supportive.

11. Structured - People who are driven by traditional approaches, proven methods and a defined system for living.

12. Selfless - People who are driven by completing tasks for the sake of completion, with little expectation of personal return.

Behavioural Hierarchy

Your observable behaviour and related emotions contribute to your success on the job. When matched to the job, they play a large role in enhancing your performance. The list below ranks your behavioural traits from the strongest to the weakest.

Driving Forces Feedback

Your motivation to succeed is, in part, determined by your underlying driving forces. You will feel energised and successful at work when your job supports and satisfies these driving forces. The following 4 factors make up your primary driving forces cluster.

1. Resourceful

- You are driven by practical results, maximising both efficiency and returns for your investments of time, talent, energy and resources.

2. Intentional

- You are driven to assist others for a specific purpose, not just for the sake of being helpful or supportive.

3. Receptive

- You are driven by new ideas, methods and opportunities that fall outside a defined system for living.

4. Commanding

- You are driven by status, recognition and control over personal freedom.

Driving Forces Feedback

Samantha will focus on creating processes to ensure efficiency going forward. She is driven to maximise opportunities in order to create financial flexibility. She follows a philosophy of "it is not personal, it is just business." She will help develop an individual if she sees opportunities for future return. Samantha can be an out-of-the-box thinker. Given the choice, Samantha would choose to experience new opportunities. She can go to extremes to win or control the situation. She has the desire to create a winning strategy. In those areas where Samantha has a special interest she will be good at integrating past knowledge to solve current problems. If Samantha is truly interested in a specific subject, or if knowledge of specific subject matter is required for success, then she will take the initiative to learn about that subject in great depth. At times Samantha will look for opportunities to tie beauty and harmony into the experiences of others. She may look at the totality of a situation to ensure a rewarding interaction.

Behavioural Feedback

Your observable behaviour and related emotions contribute to your success on the job. When matched to the job, they play a large role in enhancing your performance. The following are your 3 highest ranked behavioural traits:

1. Urgency

- You are decisive and quick to respond. You are able to make on-the-spot decisions with good judgment and meet deadlines on time.

2. Versatile

- You easily adapt to changes with a high level of optimism and a "can do" orientation.

3. Interaction

- You prefer to interact with others rather than deal with tasks.

Behavioural Feedback

Samantha embraces visions not always seen by others. Samantha's creative mind allows her to see the "big picture." She is goal-oriented and driven by results. She is the team member who will try to keep the others on task. Most people see her as a high risk-taker. Her view is, "nothing ventured, nothing gained." She prefers an environment with variety and change. She is at her best when many projects are underway at once. Samantha is extremely results-oriented, with a sense of urgency to complete projects quickly. She is deadline conscious and becomes irritated if deadlines are delayed or missed. Many people see her as a self-starter dedicated to achieving results. She needs to learn to relax and pace herself. She may expend too much energy trying to control herself and others.
